

NAMA : MUHAMMAD ABYAN FAWAZI

KELAS : TI-B

NIM :2130511050

MATKUL : BAHASA INGGRIS

TUGAS UAS BAHASA INGGRIS

Book review : Barbary shore by norman mailer

I recommended this book because this book there are quite a lot plot twist in it besides that this book that was also written by a famous 20 th century novelis from America this book was made in 1951, in this book there is a lot that can be learned from the struggle of a war victim who lost his memory trying to improve himself both mentally,physically and his memory trying to rise from adversity by writing a novel in a house in Brooklyn new York,in this book there also an interesting narrative and political fiction. Very insightful and bold his social commentary. All theme – socialism vs. capitalism, dysfunctional americans modernity, formlessness and mystical allure of radical ideologies seem an relevant now as ever, while simultaneously expanding awareness of, which is obvious reasons for not getting much attention in nationalist education cricculum that studies , in short, I found it to be a very useful and touching read today’s political context with all the socialist fears make steady progress back to national consciousness.

For this book, I do not recommend it to people who are not yet 18 years old, because it contains aspects of sexuality and radical politics,so this novel cannot be digested by all ages.

Evaluation for this book, maybe from the story line that rotates so it’s boring for the middle of the story.

To compare this bookwith books with the same genre,this book is quite intresting compared to other books with the same genre,because norman mailer himself wrote some of the contents of this novel based on his history, and his book also discusess a lot about ideology and politics so it is quite sensitive compared to other novel with the same genre.